Why the Media Pounced on Poland & Hungary's Conservative Measures

As the deadliest pandemic since the Spanish Flu sweeps the globe, the media have been understandably focused on the novel coronavirus and the way to stop it. All the more surprising then, that they have gratuitously attacked right-of-center governments in Central Europe, particularly Poland and Hungary, not for failing to address the health crisis, but for exercising the same emergency authority as other democratically elected leaders around the world.

Why the Double Standard with Hungary?

In reaction to the COVID-19 pandemic, all European democracies have instituted large-scale emergency measures. But one nation in particular—Hungary—has been subjected to an unprecedented barrage of international criticism for its response to the crisis.

The Hungarians are charged with moving towards “dictatorship,” bypassing the rule of law, suspending the parliament, and canceling elections. These accusations are false on all counts.

Hungary's "State of Danger" Will Save Millions of People from the Coronavirus

According to a phrase based on Aphorisms by Hippocrates, the ancient Greek founder of medicine, desperate times call for desperate measures. The current coronavirus situation is forcing governments across the globe to meet serious challenges and to accept difficult measures to combat them.

The Partnership that Changed the World

SEPTEMBER 26, 2018

WASHINGTON, DC

With the extraordinary power of their will and their words, an American President and a Polish Pope liberated Europe and forever changed the world.

A recent conference in Washington, DC examined key similarities between the two men, the remarkable events of their presidency and papacy, and their lasting legacy today.
